

APOCALYPSE

Without question, I am taking a huge risk in sending this to you because the truth that I am about to share seems so far fetched and most likely, you have heard it before. Well, I have too, and quite honestly, I have paid little attention to any comments that crossed my path in the past related to “end times” because of those very reasons.

So why am I now joining this growing group of people making genuine efforts to share the message that the world as we know it is about to enter into a period of time that marks the “end of days”? Well, simply put...because it is true. A year ago, you would have been hard pressed to convince me of any such thing. Yes, the world was getting pretty unstable, but hey, history repeats itself, right? It will pass.

Recently, I was powerfully prompted to pay close attention to the end times. It was so powerful, that all the rumblings I had heard through the years from people referring to Bible prophecy all sorta came together in a way that made me want to read, learn, understand on my own and not take the word of someone else. Also, it was important to me to make sure I was not over-reacting to something that has been so sensationalized over the years.

So, I read and studied from multiple different sources. I compared it all to scriptures in the Bible, and I discovered something I truly didn't realize before...and that was the Bible is full of prophecy, dating clear back to the Old Testament, and I was able to see through prophetic scriptures I read that EVERYTHING has come true with uncanny precision.

I also learned that the bible is true, inerrant, and infallible. I never really grasped that concept until I started studying prophecy. I was able to see for myself the things that were predicted 2,500 years ago, have clearly happened...without much dispute. It was so powerful that I knew I needed to understand far more, because nearly every prophecy that I read had already come to pass, except for just a few of the “end times” prophecies...and frankly we are right in the midst of virtually all of those as we speak, and we truly do not want to experience the very few that are yet unfulfilled.

Why am I sending you this information?

I don't know where you stand with God, and even if you are saved, it is imperative to find out for yourself about the days in which we are living. If you are not saved, I am writing specifically to get you tuned into the reality that you do not want to move ahead in this world without accepting Jesus Christ as your savior. I know that may sound weird coming from me since I don't typically talk that boldly about salvation, but events are unfolding so fast, that time is really not on our side to think much about this decision, and the consequences of waiting too long to do this, will be catastrophic.

Yes. It will be that horrifying. And if too much time passes, and you end up in what is called “tribulation” and you have not accepted Jesus...you will be subjected to things you cannot fathom in the present moment. So you say, “if God is so loving and gracious, why would He subject those He loves to this kind of torture?” I know... I asked the same question.

The truth is that He DOES NOT WANT ANYONE to be subjected to this hell on earth. He has given us many, many, many signs to know that the end is very near (that tribulation is very near). I wouldn't have known about these signs unless I had not studied what they are. But, He has offered us a gift (A FREE GIFT) of salvation, despite our past, despite our mistakes, despite our sin. He also gave us free will to choose if we want that gift or not. God is not oppressive, so He allows us to decide if we want Him in our lives or not. If we choose not to accept Jesus Christ as our savior, we are choosing to face the horrors of tribulation. Those alive in tribulation will have a chance to accept Him at that point, but it will be at tremendous sacrifice. The alternative to refusing this gift at any point, will be far worse than the horrors of tribulation...it will be hell.

APOCALYPSE

This is an introduction to the information I plan to send to you via email.

There is so much information to share, that it is too complex perhaps to grasp it all in one attempt. I introduced a little bit about end times and the signs to watch for, tribulation, salvation, and bible prophecy in general. I will send something for you to look at, read, check out, and PRINT OFF so that you can do this on your own time and at your own pace. I will send them as different topics so you can learn and read about one thing at a time, and not get overwhelmed with too much information at once.

I am sure this feels offensive maybe and that I am perhaps shoving Christianity down your throat. Please don't take it that way. I simply feel an urgency to share what has become incredibly clear to me, and I am watching this world literally unfold with exact precision in a way that the Bible said it would.

It is so accurate that it is shocking!

Please, print these things off when you receive them. I don't know how many of these I will send, but they will make sense to you when you read them. I have things broken down in a very simple format (I needed simplicity!)and I will share what I have discovered.

That is all I am trying to do. Provide education to you because you are important to me. Don't feel like you have to talk to me about it in person, and don't feel like you have to duck when you see me. I will let you ask me questions if you want to...otherwise, I will just provide written material for you to read as you wish.

Please, however, don't put this prayer off....the rest is less important.

"Lord Jesus, I need You. Thank You for dying on the cross for my sins. I open the door of my life and receive You as my Savior and Lord. Thank You for forgiving my sins and giving me eternal life. Take control of the throne of my life. Make me the kind of person You want me to be."
